

Residente

PRODUCT OVERVIEW

Residente

The community platform built for the resident, not the management company.

MEET MARCUS

Marcus pays $310 a month.

He has never once seen where it goes.

Nice place, good neighbors. But the HOA is a black box he pays into every month and hopes for the best. No statement he can read, no decision he was asked about.

MEET MARIA

Maria runs the whole thing.

She volunteered. It became a second job.

Treasurer, complaint desk, and bookkeeper, on nights and weekends, for 80 homes and one shared spreadsheet that only she understands.

THE SETUP

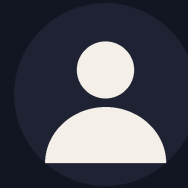

Same community. Two worlds.

THE RESIDENT

Marcus

Pays in. Can't see in. So he assumes the worst and trusts a little less each year.

THE BOARD

Maria

Does all the work. Can't keep up. So she burns out, and the community runs on one tired volunteer.

— A YEAR THE OLD WAY / MARCUS

March: a letter arrives.

A $400 special assessment. No explanation he can follow. No vote he remembers being part of. Just a bill, due in 30 days.

He pays it. And he trusts his board a little less. Now multiply that by every household.

— A YEAR THE OLD WAY / MARIA

Every Sunday: the spreadsheet.

- Reconciling checks by hand against the bank.
- Chasing the same five late payers, again.
- Answering the same question in twelve different group chats.

October, the annual meeting: eight people come, and nobody believes the numbers.

The problem was never the people.

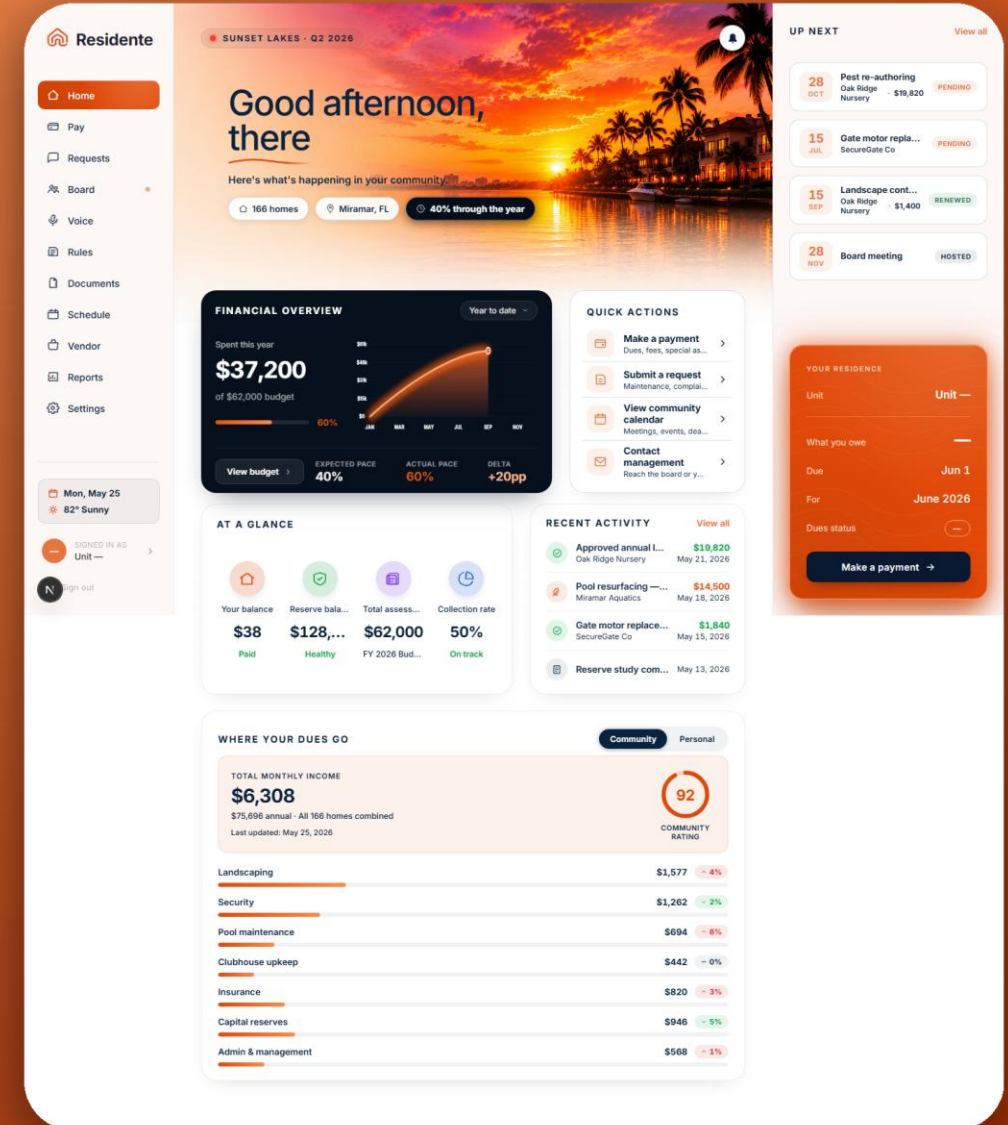

It was the wall between them.

Residents and boards have always lived on opposite sides of an information wall. Every tool the industry shipped was built for the manager, which just made the wall taller.

THEN ONE THING CHANGED

Their community moved onto Residente.

Same people. Same dues. Same 80 homes. One difference: now both sides share a single source of truth.

A YEAR ON RESIDENTE / MARCUS

Now Marcus sees his $310.

	Reserves	$74
	Landscaping & grounds	$66
	Insurance	$52
	Water & sewer	$44
	Pool & amenities	$38
	Management & admin	$36

Every dollar accounted for. He pays in 30 seconds, and votes on what comes next.

And he never loses the thread.

ALWAYS ON THE RECORD

Go back to anything, anytime.

Every vote, every meeting, every summary, saved and searchable. Minutes, decisions, and documents he can pull up years later. Nothing buried, nothing lost.

ALWAYS IN THE LOOP

Know the moment it changes.

An instant notice the second anything is new. A fresh expense, a new amenity, a rule change, a vote that needs him. He hears it when it happens, not at the next meeting.

Now Maria has her Sundays back.

- The ledger reconciles itself against the bank.
- Dues collect on autopilot, late fees and all.
- Meetings, minutes, and votes are recorded for her automatically.
- Residente does about 95% of the busywork she did by hand.

— OCTOBER, ONE YEAR LATER

The room is full.
The numbers are trusted.

Turnout tripled. No shouting, no suspicion. Just neighbors who have been watching the same numbers all year, deciding together.

THE MARKET

This isn't two people.

369,000

community associations in the US

77 million

residents, 23% of the country

$120 billion

in dues collected every year

Almost all of it still runs on Maria's spreadsheet. Every one of those communities has a Marcus.

THE TIMING

And in Florida, it's now the law.

HB 1203

Florida's 2024 community law

100+ homes

must run a members only website or app

Since Jan 2025

with official records, posted and downloadable

Most associations are scrambling to comply. Residente is that website, the records portal, and the whole platform, on day one.

THE COMPETITION

Read their own words.

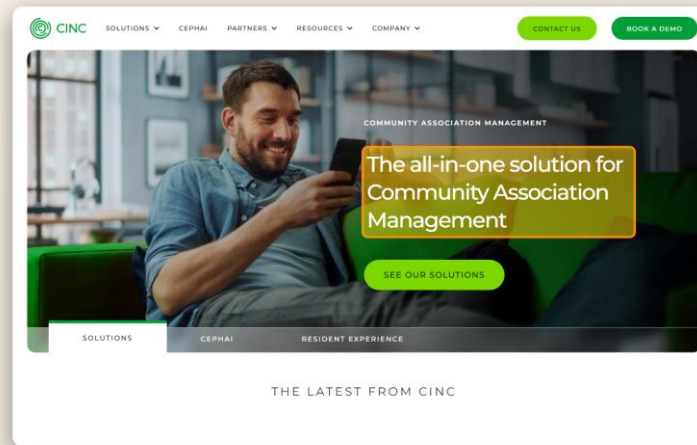

Straight from their own homepages. Highlights added.

FRONTSTEPS

MANAGERS + BOARDS

Three real homepages. Look who they're for. What's missing?

The background of the slide is a photograph of a tropical sunset. The sky is filled with orange and yellow clouds, with the sun low on the horizon. In the foreground, there is a body of water reflecting the sunset. On the right side, there is a large, multi-story house with many windows, some of which are lit up. Several palm trees are in front of the house. A small white boat is docked at a pier in the water. The overall mood is warm and serene.

THE QUESTION EVERY BOARD ASKS

What makes us different?

It comes down to one word.

Residente

noun. it's literally our name.

Put the person who lives there at the center, and the community works again.

WHAT YOU GET

Everything included. Shaped to your community.

THE WHOLE PLATFORM

- Resident cockpit and online dues (Stripe)
- Live budgets and a board decisions feed
- Meetings, minutes, and voting
- Documents, rules, and violations
- Amenities, calendar, and requests
- Accounting and bank reconciliation
- English, Spanish, and Portuguese

MADE YOURS

- Roles and permissions your board defines
- Categories you rename to fit your community
- Optional modules, switched on when you need them
- A team that builds what your communities ask for Custom roles are enforced in the database, not just the UI.

THE MODEL

One product. Priced by community size.

Every plan includes the entire platform. Residents never pay a software fee.
